MAKING INFERENCES

NAME: _____

GET OFF MY LAWN!

Everyone on the street knew the old man, who lived at number 15, was scary and strange. He never, ever came outside and he would peer out the blinds with an evil look in his eyes. One day the children were playing, when Jack's ball bounced across the road and onto the old man's grass. "Just leave it!" whispered Ben. "But it's our only ball," replied Jack. They crept onto the lawn but just as they were about to retrieve the ball the old man appeared on the porch and screamed, "GET OFF MY LAWN!". The boys jumped high into the air and bolted back home. They locked all the doors, pulled the blinds down and sat trembling on the lounge room floor. To this day their ball still lies on the old man's lawn.

1. Why do you think Ben told Jack to leave the ball?

How did you make this inference?

2. Where do you think the two boys were playing?

How did you make this inference?

3. How do you think the two boys felt when the old man yelled at them?

How did you make this inference?

Eva and Suzzie are twins. They were born on August 5, 1992. They are ten now and in the fourth grade. Eva and Suzzie do everything together. They are in the same class. They dress alike. They look the same. People always get them confused. This really makes Eva and Suzzie laugh. Teachers always get them mixed up at school. Even their father has trouble telling them apart. Their mother doesn't, though. She always knows which twin is which. Eva and Suzzie often try to confuse her, but it has never happened. Their older brother, Brad, is fifteen. He never knows which one is which. He doesn't even try. Eva and Suzzie have the same friends. Their friends always mix them up. It doesn't matter to Eva and Suzzie. One day, their father told their mother to get one of them a different haircut, so that he could tell them apart. Eva and Suzzie were horrified. They didn't want to look different. They liked looking the same. Their mother came to the rescue, and refused to make them cut their hair. The girls were happy just the way they were and didn't want to change. Their dad just shook his head. He would have to stay confused. Eva and Suzzie didn't care. They knew which one was which, and that was all that mattered.
